2. Exhibitors must be a resident of Perry County or an active member of a Perry County 4H, FFA, or EHC club. Juniors must be members of a Perry County 4H club or FFA chapter to be able to participate in the premium sale. Membership status will be checked.
3. An entry from an adjoining county may be displayed, but is not eligible for premium unless the owner is a member of an organization in Perry County and has not received premium from another county.
4. Each exhibitor will receive ONE exhibitor number. There will not be separate numbers for livestock and the exhibit hall. Every entry must be registered with the proper superintendent(s) and listed in the entry book. 6. Decision of judges in awarding premiums will be final.

Premium sale checks will be completed as soon as all buyers have paid. Perry County Youth Livestock Foundation is responsible for the Robert Parish Memorial Premium Sale checks.
8. Premium checks will be mailed (no exceptions). To ensure proper delivery, give a proper mailing address when registering.
9. Premium checks not cashed within 90 days will be voided.
10. If no competition is present in a class, the judges may award first, second, or third place to any entry.

12. No claim for injury to any person or property shall ever be asserted or suit instituted or maintained against the Perry County Fair Association, its officials or their agents on behalf of any person, firm, cooperating representative, servant, or employee having license or privilege to exhibit at said Perry County Fair and Livestock Show.
13. Exhibitors must check exhibits out through the superintendents in charge of each division at the close of the fair.
